I now beg to state my views on new political position. I believe that we have granted that the people of this Province acquired the entire control of the franchise, and that the principle of universal suffrage has been established, and that we have so long and earnestly laboured (by our people), is guaranteed our new Constitution, creation of Canada.

This Constitution, and thereby, it will be my duty to preserve it, and I believe that it will tend to bring about the growth and prosperity, and the happiness and well-being of the people.

I am in favor of the extension of the suffrage to the Dominion, so as to embrace the Province, and British Columbia, and I believe that the extension of that view, I shall, in the course of my administration, be able to carry out.

Now Dominion, and to use the resources of the Great North.

If elected I will to my development of our vast resources, and to the development of our great natural resources, and to the development of our agricultural and manufacturing resources, and by all means in my power to increase the commercial resources of the Dominion.

I am an advocate of Civil Liberty, to the fullest extent (extending beyond the limits

I am in favour of a House of Commons, as it will, if elected, aid in the law.

And furthermore, will a rigid economy in every branch of the Government Service, believing, as I do, that the only success in the working of our Government depends upon keeping within the expenses attending the Government of our new Dominion.

In conclusion, should you confer your confidence, I will do my utmost to advance the interests of my country, particularly, and of the country generally, so that the prosperity of the Dominion may be secured, and the prosperity of the other provinces may be promoted.

PURELY VEGETABLE

The need of a safe and perfectly reliable cathartic or purgative medicine, has long been felt by the people and the faculty, and it is a source of great satisfaction to us, that we can, with confidence, recommend our BIRNBERG'S VEGETABLE PILLS as a purgative.

They are not made from the common drugs that compose other pills, but are prepared from the very finest quality of medicine roots, herbs and plants, the active principles, or parts that contain the medicinal value, being chemically separated from the hard and useless wood portions, that contain no virtue whatever. Among these medicinal agents we may name ODOPHYLLIN, which has been proved to possess a most wonderful power over the Liver and all the biliary secretions. This, in combination with LEPTANDRIN and other highly active medicinal substances, any medicine of the kind ever offered to the public. BRISTOL'S VEGETABLE PILLS not only find a safe and speedy remedy in all such cases as

HEADACHE,
JAUNDICE,
BAD BREATH,
FOUL STOMACH,

HEARTBURN and FLATULENCY.
DROPSY of LIMBS or BODY.
FEMALE IRREGULARITIES.
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS & KIDNEYS.

In a medicine that has their origin in the blood, the COLIC, SPASMS, PARALYSIS, or CRISTULI, should be used with caution; the two medicines being prepared to be most closely in harmony together; when this is done faithfully we have no hesitation in saying that great relief, and in some cases a cure, can be guaranteed, when the patient is not already beyond human help.

For general directions and table of doses, see appended French and English.

how it may injure him with a few of the social political friends, to state some negotiation that he gave the expression already giving, and so, as well as the consequence of it were not present at said meeting, but who on our representation, voted for him on the

Here is a pretty kettle of fish. One of Mr. Brown's present backers regarded his position above; it is beautifully phrased—"O Consistency thou art a . . ."

Another quotation from Mr. Brown—"The game is going because I sell myself as unfortunate O'Connell supporters," after this he appeared in the paper.

"I characterize their statement as a lie, and I am content that the public will know the names and now having heard their lies, I don't judge between their veracity and mine." I regard to the posterity, I must say, I have heard of Messrs Messrs Messrs and Nulty's names at least.

Mr. Meagher knows of his own knowledge that a pledge was asked from me, and that I refused to give it. As for Mr. Nulty, he presented himself to me, and he heard me took place. He knows I did not say the words attributed to me, but he has no "mortal courage to any so, but in a small, dark, crowded hall, he pretends that he told so many lies, and for that reason he is for me."

Well, friend Nulty, how do you like reflection? Are you not well paid for the pains you took in endeavoring to tell 'your man; pause and consider. I am now doing quoting; I am not sorry, I nearly died. If I have done what seem well I am glad, but to silence the tongue which was called for; some whose are dimmed by the reflection of their veling nature, he will find fault with Mr. Brown and his satellites. I have found fault last week, when the floodgates of order and bigotry were let loose in Toronto, polluting the Province of Ontario with a foul newspaper matter that was the broadest for the last fifteen years. It ed back to 1852. I have reason to think it was compiled and printed in the Free Press, and paid for by Government funds, and, like a shower of Egyptian gold, was distributed to the members of the order. Sixty unfortunate Catholics were the infliction here. Did the spirit of dishonesty ever devise a more infamous occasion for an election? Ministerial candidates must indeed be greatly alarmed, when a base measure is resorted to.

In vain they endeavor to make it appear that the Globe is the Reform party; the Globe is not the Reform party; it is what the Hastings Chronicle says it is. Yesterday in alluding to the subject, I said that the Globe was the George Brown is not the "Reform press" and that he is as vigorously denounced as any other man, as John A. Mac-ties. I may here remark that the Catholic is the organ of the Reform party in County, and I would recommend it only to Reformers generally, but not to Catholics who require a local paper.

I will add just one tit-bit here from the Intelligencer, of Aug. 2d, 1841, in defence of James Brown against the "accursed" Intelligencer, and its "porters." They" (the Catholics) "are a class of wretches whose very breath is poison and whose touch is pollution. What say you to that fellow Catholic porter of the Intelligencer's nominee for whom you were branded the vilest of the vile. Not in the whole category abuse during the most stormy campaign of contending factions can any thing be found to equal it.

At the committee meeting

Neilson's Hall, on last Monday night, I understand there were some few Catholic mostly silent speculators, but amongst them there was one, remarkable for having taken the part of stool-pigeon, a second volume the celebrated Harry Castle, only not respectable; one of the Jenny O'neill or Corydons of Belleville, and I believe countrymen generally to be of the same stamp. He was followed Mr. G. Henderson and Mr. J. J. Farley, the man whom I am supposing, to annoy the Hiss Crow Whiskey and vernaculars to take there. The Electors of Tyndinaga did not to be trifled with. I caution him not for I have heard something, not to attempt the trick again,—eggs, this hot weather, not very sound.

I have just inadvertently stated that the above was L. FARLEY and GIBSON.

E HENDERSON in the Esau Riding M. reasons need not be reiterated. They so plainly set forth in what I have just written, that a wayfarer cannot err the less. And I may say the same of Lord Hastings. The quotations I have given from his inimitable speech to the House of Commons will show to all his friends, that that Riding, who may accidentally see this, whom I would like to ponder.

Wander, fellow citizens, before it is too late. No doubt the public purse is open to elect their candidates, while the opportunity is before them. I would not wish my fellow countrymen to work on their own words, but I would wish them to do so on the words of a Member of our governing body, to do so on the decision on you as he did before.

I have no fault to find with the Scotch. Honour them as a body, and point them out to my countrymen, as a model in the eyes of the world.

A BOY CUT BY PICKS BY MILL WHEELS.—The Gulf and Advertiser says:—We have to record one of the most terrible catastrophes that ever occurred in this State. On the 17th inst. by which a lad of this town, in the foolishness of his youth and manhood, was hurried into eternity without a moment's warning. It appears that the certain boy, who was ten years of age, was in the mill of the Victor Mills in this town. On Friday forenoon a lad named John Yates, and a son of Mr. J. B. Prescott, were in the mill, and the latter was told that Yates fell on to the spur wheel, and was crushed to pieces. With great pressure of mind, young Prescott shut off the water, and called for assistance,—but it was too late.
